THEATRE BENEFITS

Theatre education is fun and helps young people learn important life skills.

Improved literacy through interpreting scripts, reading and memorizing lines

Improved empathy through character development and teamwork with castmates

Increased competence and confidence from speaking in front of an audience

Self-esteem cultivated by taking creative and emotional risks

SPONSORSHIP LEVELS

This year we will present two shows. The first show is The Root of the Problem: Fairytale Edition and it will be performed at the Lawrenceville Arts Center in May 2026. In the summer we will have a Shakespeare Summer Camp which will be performed in June 2026. Two types of sponsorships are available. Season sponsors will receive all benefits for both productions, while show sponsors will choose which show to feature their sponsorship with.

Presenting Season sponsor! Your ad will appear on the inside front cover of the program in full color (8 inches tall by 5 inches wide). Your company's logo will be featured on marketing materials for both shows as well as through other promotional materials throughout the year. (One available)

Sustaining Season sponsor! Your ad will either be on the inside back cover or on the back cover of both programs in full color (8 inches tall by 5 inches wide). Your company's logo will be featured on marketing materials for the show as well as through other promotional materials throughout the year. (One Remaining)

Full page black & white ad in both programs. (8 inches tall by 5 inches wide)

Additional opportunities include a season long half page black & white ad (3.5 inches tall by 5 inches wide) for $100, a season long black and white business card ad for $45, and a season long text shout out for $15. Individual shows may be sponsored (space permitting) for $3,000 per presenting show sponsor; $1,500 per sustaining show sponsor; $150 for a full page ad; $75 for a half page ad; $35 for a business card ad; and $10 for a shout out.
